

OUTDOOR LEARNING

Time to get outside

More and more schools are choosing to integrate outdoor learning into their curriculum. The Outdoor Classroom Day initiative conducted research to show what teachers think about getting their students outdoors for their studies.

In fact,

85% of teachers want more time to teach in an outdoor environment.

What prevents teachers from taking lessons outside?

68%

The weather

39%

Pressure caused by curriculum work

9%

Health and Safety fears

84%

INCREASED
ENGAGEMENT
IN LEARNING

85%

HAPPIER

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF OUTDOOR LEARNING?

63%

BETTER BEHAVED

62%

IMPROVED
CONCENTRATION

With 72% of Australian primary schools organising classes outside at least once a week, it's essential to have an outdoor learning space that works well for your school. Felton strives to make sure schools offer a safe and fun environment that helps to make their students happy.

Contact our experts today to create your perfect outdoor learning space!

Source: Outdoor Classroom Day

<https://outdoorclassroomday.com.au/resource/outdoor-play-and-learning-at-school-survey-results/>